Fund Manager Commentary

March saw the FTSE 100, FTSE 250 and FTSE small cap return 2.9%, -0.3% and 0.8% respectively. Prime Minister Theresa May's Brexit deal was defeated twice more in the House Commons, despite her offering to step down if the deal passed. MP's tried to break the Brexit impasse via a series of indicative votes, but no alternative option was able to garner a majority. Sterling was volatile against the Dollar, largely reflecting investor perceptions of a possible no deal Brexit. Portfolio activity was light consisting of a modest top-up in Morgan Sindall following a positive meeting with management. Contributors to performance included Dechra Pharmaceuticals PLC, Halma, Marshalls and Next, whilst Victrex PLC, RELX PLC, Scapa Group PLC and John Menzies were detractors. At a sector level the underweight positions in Tobacco, Mining and Beverages and overweight in Utilities and General Industrials hindered performance. The overweight positions in Food & Drug Retailers and Healthcare and the underweight in Banks and Defence helped performance. In the midst of continuing geopolitical uncertainty, currency fluctuations and mixed economic data, the fund continues to focus on companies offering robust balance sheets, solid cash flows, growing dividends and strong market positioning.
